Century-Old Bible Given In Appreciation Rescue From Drowning

A former Prince Edward resident, now of Amherst Island, has a and all other Communion. The resolution said many United Church members were concerned over the trend to religious exclusiveness in the committee's work.

family treasure which she hopes will be kept by her descendants.

Mrs. G. S. Farrington of Stella, has a small brown Bible with a worn, golden clasp, which was presented to her grandfather 100 years ago. Thomas Keys was presented with the Bible by Samuel Chown July 30, 1864, two days after he rescued Mr. Chown's son, Samuel Jr., from drowning at Garden Island.

The boy who was pulled from the water later went on to become general superintendent of the Methodist Church in Canada.

Very little is known about the rescue. An inscription inside the Bible reads: "Presented to Thomas Keys Jr., as a small token of gratitude to him for preserving my little boy from drowning at Garden Island on the 28th of July, 1864. Samuel Chown, Kingston, 30th July, 1864".

"The book isn't valuable", said Mrs. Farrington. "But it has a great deal of sentimental value for me. I will pass it along to my descendants".

Miss Daisy G. Chown, a relative of the man who made the presentation, said Rev. Dr. Samuel D. Chown died in Toronto in 1933 at the age of 79. She said he would have been about 12 years old when rescued from the lake.

Miss Chown, 83, has lived in Kingston all her life.

Dr. H. C. Burleigh

Bath, Ontario

Dear Doctor Burleigh:

I can hardly excuse myself for now replying sooner; but I might explain that I have been unusually busy this past two months, and have had to set aside many letters for later answers. I am always pleased to receive an inquiry on genealogy, whether or not be benefit each other.

Colonel Robert Arthur wrote me once during the war, in answer to an inquiry by myself, and I have just tried to find his letter. It is sure to turn up somewhere along the line, as I seldom discard a letter like that; and when I find it I shall write you. Trouble is I am not apt to be looking through my genealogy correspondence till winter. It runs in my mind that he said he descended from the New England Farringtons (I don't remember which clan)(probably from Massachusettes)

I am descended from some New Jersey Farringtons who migrated to Ohio.. I don't think there are any connections with Canadians. I don't know who the immigrant was, but the earliest Farrington I have record of is Joseph. He died about 1692 or before, and lived in Bucks Co., Pa., just across the river from New Jersey. Hhad a son Abraham Farrington (1692-1758) who was a Quaker minister. Incidentally he died in London, England. He married Phebe Bunting, da. of Saml & Mary (Folke) Bunting. Their children were: Samuel, Joseph, Mary (m. Israel Barnes or Barros), and Abigail (who married Joseph Delaplaine). My ancestor was the above Joseph who married Phebe Alcott, and had children: 7 infants who died, and Abraham (my ancestor), Mary and Phebe (both unmarried). This later Abraham married Deborah Kirk. I have compiled all (nearly) the descendants of this couple in a manuscript calkd Descendants of Abraham Farrington, and in addition have photo copies of this family for sale a $1 apiece. I haven't yet found time to mimeograph this work. This photo copy I should explain is a diagram of the family showing all descendants down to my father's generation. I am 40, a postal clerk.

No, I doubt If I would care for the data on the Ontario Farringtons, but I appreciate your offer. Incidentally I have visited the Congressional Library in Washington without much success. Write again.

Sincerely,

Herschel Rockelle
